Name _____ Grade _____

Summer Learning BINGO

Collaborator	Communicator	Creative and Critical Thinker	Goal-Directed and Resilient Individual	Ethical and Global Citizen
Game On! Learn to play a new board game	Listen to an audiobook	Drama-Rama: Pretend you are a character from a book you read - show off their talents	Read a book with a character/ person that faces trouble and looks for new solutions	Choose a book that makes you feel good
Work with a friend or family member to build or cook or create something	Write a letter or an email to someone	Draw a picture or write a story about a book you read	Set a goal to read a book that is different than your usual favorites	Read a book written in another language
Start a book club or have a book discussion with a friend or family member	Write a 6-word book or a movie review	Create A movie or a dance about a book you read	Set a reading goal and try to achieve it	Do something good for the environment
With a friend, act out a scene from a book	"Open Mic Night" Ask your eldest family members to tell you the stories of your family so that you can pass them on	Read 2 books on the same issue and compare the different points of view	Try a new activity this summer - even if it scares you	Read a book about a character or person who helps their community
Do a puzzle with a friend or family member!	Swap a book with a friend or family member	Use your imagination to design and build a mindmap about a book you're reading	Interview a relative and ask them to describe a hardship they faced and how they overcame it	Read a book about a character or person who is from a different culture